What we do with the information we gather

With your first and last name and email address, we may periodically send you a message to:

- Publish news about the trail.
- Recruit volunteers, e.g. Adopt-a-Trail, Strategic Plan activity champions, etc.
- Recruit Board members.
- Solicit memberships.
- Solicit donations.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard the information we collect online. All personal information collected will be maintained only in password protected files on properly secured computers under the control of officers of the FLMSP.

How we track web site usage

We use traffic log cookies to identify the web pages being viewed on our site. This helps us analyze usage of these pages and improve the content of our web site. A cookie does not give us access to your computer or any information about you other than the data you choose to share with us. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. However, you can modify your browser setting preferences to decline saving cookies on your computer or mobile device which may prevent you from taking full advantage of the web site content.

Many of the web based services automatically collect personal information without the knowledge of the viewer. Typical data that is automatically collected includes the following:

Time of day, which pages were viewed, how long did you view each page, the nearest city to your internet router, what internet browser you use, what operating system and revision you have, the IP address of your computer, what search words were used to find our web site, how often you return to the web site, and many other bits of information.

The FLMSPP will restrict access to the personal information and will remove personal information from the data shared with others. If specific permission has been granted by a respondent, to allow their information to be shared, the FLMSPP may distribute that limited information.

Links to other web sites

Our web site may contain links to other related web sites which may be of interest to you. However, if you select one of these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other web site. Therefore, your activity at these sites is not governed by this Online Web Site Privacy Policy and we do not accept responsibility for your protection and privacy with regard to any information that you willfully provide while visiting these sites. You should exercise caution and review the Privacy Policy applicable to the web site you are viewing.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- We will not request your name and email address unless you click on “Signup for our email newsletter” on our web site www.littlemiamistatepark.org.
- If you receive an email from us that you consider unsolicited, you can click “unsubscribe” at the bottom of the email address and your name and email address will be removed from our list.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please write to president@flmspp.org.

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email us as soon as possible using the above address and we will promptly update any information found to be incorrect.
